Thank You Charleston for 20 Great Years

After moving the family from New York to Charleston, the only thing we really missed was the Italian cooking. So we got our trunkful of recipes out, found two stone ovens and set up the family business.

People said the aromas brought them in. Others liked to watch the dough-tossing. And they kept coming back.

They all told us, "This New York pizza's the best! Never had it before...where you guys been?"

We said, "Uh...New York."

Customers became friends and started asking us for "authentic" pasta and subs.

Well, we have recipes for those, too, so the menu's grown along with the family. We've added wings, wraps and lots of other Italian Fare.

We're open every day. Call for delivery, order online or, better yet, come on in. Smell the smells and watch the dough fly!

We're Looking Forward to the next 20 years!
